Aegis Awards - More Honors for The Virtual Magician

(New York/USA) – “The Virtual Magician” has netted two 2002 Aegis Awards for production company Newmagic Communications, Inc., adding to the string of awards already garnered by the series. The Aegis Awards are the premiere vehicle for peer recognition within the video industry of outstanding video productions and TV commercials.

The 13 part, 30 minute series was honored in the “Drama / Entertainment” and “Production / Sales” categories for outstanding production quality by a distinguished panel of judges representing industry professionals from around the country.

Newmagic Communications, Inc. is a New York based television and multi-media production company specializing in high-end visual effects and television programming.

World-class illusionist Marco Tempest is “The Virtual Magician,” a futuristic iconoclast on a mission to re-discover the mysterious origins, beauty and time-honored craft of magic. In each of the 13 half-hour episodes, he will take audiences on a graphical journey through his “virtual archive” of legends and mysteries, then into the real world complete with live street performances, guest appearances and secrets revealed.
